1)	- She was rushing but still felt
	that she needed to tell the women
	she liked her outfit.
	- It cheered the women up because she thought it looked bad.
	- She didn't really need to tell her
	what she thought of her outfit.
2)	Imagery - "angel of good deeds"
	Just as an angel is seen to bring hope and light into a person's life.
	So too does devonish by doing good deeds to help brighten someones day and bring them
	joy.
	Word choice - "the point is not to be known for your good deeds"

	this means you shouldn't be kind just to be able to say you've been kind.
	which tells us that Devonish is kind to be kind not to tell others.
3)	The quote "improve a gives own wellbeing" links back to the quote "suffered depression" because Devonish believes being kind to others helps her be happier.
4)	Word choice - "rebranding acts of kindness"
	This means changing the meaning of something.
	which tells us that public acts of kindness are changing the meaning of being kind from genuinely wanting to be nice to trying to make yourself look good.

	Word choice - "Charitable boasters"
	This means people who show off about donating and being kind.
	Which tells us people are only donating to make themselves look good not because they want to support a cause.
	5) - She believes people will want to do good for others if good is done to them
	- She doesn't commit acts of kindness specifically to people's faces.
	- She doesn't want people to know what she's doing.
	- She wants everyone to commit
	acts of kindness
	- She feels fulfilled when being

kind.
- She does small, simple gestures.
6) Word choice - "Do not your good works in public."
This means people shouldn't do good for others to see.
Which tells us that doing good for others to see isn't really doing good because you aren't doing it to be kind you're doing it for attention.
Imagery - "The left hand does not know what the right hand has given."
Just as if something is done perfectly secret one hand should not know what the other has done.

	So too should acts of kindness be done only for the giver to know about.
	7) - it makes people feel better about themselves.
	- its easy to do and can have such a large impact.
	- brings pure happiness.
	8) - people can be scared about an anonymous person doing nice things for them
	- people may need to come forward about their attempts at kindness.
	9) the quote "I just have to tell him" creates an effective conclusion because it links back to the first paragraph about Devonish complimenting someone where she says "I just had to tell her."
